Printing up to 22,000 envelopes per hour, this tough little machine can turn out some serious productivity. The AS-450 can hold a whole box of C5/6 or DL envelopes (500) at a time. It can also take materials up to 6.3 mm thick. The intuitive user touch screen gives operators full control to produce the best looking and most efficient mailings with ease.

Expense Control
High production speed and low operation costs streamline your direct mail process and maximizes postal rate discounts

Revenue Growth
Create striking mail pieces with quality print and spot color that are proven to increase open, read and response rates dramatically

Risk Mitigation
Address correction and cleansing keeps addresses up-to-date to ensure sensitive customer information is never sent to the wrong person
